

Prayer of Compassionate Mercy

God of justice and boundless mercy,
You open our eyes to the poor at our door.
Keep us from closing our hearts to those who hunger, suffer, or are cast aside.

Lord Jesus, who told the story of Lazarus and the rich man, turn our gaze from comfort and self-interest to the needs of our neighbours.
Give us courage to share what we have,
to notice the overlooked,
to cross the chasm of indifference.

Holy Spirit, soften our spirits, that we may hear Your Word today and not harden our hearts.

Teach us to love with generosity so that, when our earthly life is done, we may rest in Your eternal embrace, where no one is forgotten and every tear is wiped away.

Amen.
