

FEARS AND SIGNS

Jesus wants us to stay calm and faithful, even when the world around us seems full of fear and trouble. The people asked Him when the end would come, but Jesus didn't give them a date or time. Instead, He warned them not to be deceived. Many people will claim to know the truth or to be the one sent by God, but we must not follow them blindly.

Jesus spoke about wars, earthquakes, famines, and other disasters. These things sound frightening, but He told us not to be afraid. They are not signs that the world is ending right away, but signs that life on earth will always have struggles and suffering.

The message is clear: our faith should not depend on fear or signs. Jesus calls us to trust in God at all times, to stay strong, and to keep doing good. Even when the world seems to fall apart, God's love and truth remain the same. If we hold on to that, we will not be lost or deceived, no matter what happens around us.
